In the recent past, HMD Architects has been able to engrave a niche as a design authority over K-12 schools consultancy, this ranges from new campus developments to expansions and refurbishments. A large part of our portfolio leans toward these greenfield and brownfield K-12 school projects. Over the years HMD Architects has developed almost a perfect script in designing and execution of these K-12 schools, which come with their own complexities, logistics and inorganic expansions. We have routinely and closely worked with a good number of school chains in the country. Vibgyor High, Podar International, Universal Group, Billabong High, EuroSchool, Narayana group of Schools, and many more have utilised our services at one point or the other in some capacity or the other.
